Club Business- Steve C, President explained Simi Valley Chevrolet not continuing with sponsorship to members. He told of visit to dealer, giving them the agreement letter and invoice. David Mendoza, Sales Mgr said he would give them to Jeff Kennedy. No reason provided for not sponsoring. Steve initiated a visit and discussion with Rydell about sponsoring the club. It looks as though it will come to fruition. Final signing of papers and conditions to be done. Steve said all conditions of previous sponsorship will be honored by Rydell. Members told of experiences with both dealers. Board will announce final sponsorship information when it occurs.

Board and Members work together to provide events for all. Steve mentioned several committees where he wants people to sign up to support major events throughout the year and our charitable efforts. Sign up sheets available.

It is the 35th anniversary of the club, we want to celebrate at as many events as possible. First event 4th of July combination with 35th anniversary. Others planned in conjunction with other events/runs.

Steve J, webmaster, would like members to submit pictures of them with their cars, or their cars to post on the website. Many have different cars than when past pictures were taken, so you might want to update your car profile for Steve to post.

Car Shows Update: Brett R will continue to provide car show information. He brought up a couple and said he would have them posted on website. Important show is Royal High School April 14, 2019. Let's support our local school. Brett also brought up the new California law where a new vehicle must have a temporary license number assigned to it for tracking until the official plates are sent. No more paper plates with dealers names.

Upcoming Runs Bob and Cathy S talked about Bowling January 24, 2019. Dinner at Dougout after. Prizes are gift cards. Liz P, talked about Cambria run Feb 8-10, 2019. 40 people attending, talked about stops and events planned. Frank C provided details on plans for Plastic Fantastic, May 18-19, 2019. He showed his email response from San Diego Club. He discussed lunch, Stars and Stripes museum and other events during the run. Vince D, proposed a run to JPL in February as most of the Mars Rover project items are available to view. Show of hands of interest, sign up sheet created. Discuss where to have lunch, researching by members.

Share the News: Toni T, brought up Sunshine committee and stated that when mention is made of a member having health issues or other things happening in their lives, the members send cards, well wishes and visit those who are ailing or experiencing issues. Both Carl and Steve thanked members again for their caring. Steve commented the club is like family and it is wonderful to have so many concerned about a member. Joanna R, brought up the suggestion box that will be at the meetings for those to write what they want the club to consider.

Skip B mentioned the T-shirts he has, there are four (4) in medium with the old logo if interested.

Steve J, mentioned a revamp of the Website to modernize and add more things to view. Will work with Board on what is needed on the site.
