Club Business Steve C informed members the increase in dues was passed and the dues will increase November 2020. If you wish to increase the dues payment this year the Board will accept your donation of the extra $10. BY LAWS state payment of dues is the first meeting of NOVEMBER. First meeting is November 5, 2019, have your dues paid by then PLEASE! Cheryl S talked about the article in the Corvette magazine where Elfi's Silver Pearl Sisterhood is creating an exhibit in the museum called Damsels of Design. She will keep everyone posted on completion date. Bob S talked about taking the 2014 Bowling Green Caravan shirts back to Savi to add another design depicting the 2019 Caravan, cost is $13 to do so. It will be the 25th Anniversary logo embroidered.

Holiday Party, Steve C is going to ask executives from Rydell to the party.

Share the News – The run to the Aloha Steak House was well attended and everyone enjoyed the view, walking around the area and the run. Raised $168 for the charities. Steve C asked that some day runs be proposed for the remainder of the year. Barry L said there were only two cars that went to Prescott, his and Skips, with their lovely wives Flo and Marilyn. Due to fires in area many decided to stay home. Barry said the radar detectors do work. There were a lot of cars shown at Prescott and it was an enjoyable time. Steve F said the SEMA show run is cancelled due to the amount of paper work and trouble it is to get people into the show. He also talked about replacing his tires and asked for the name of the Michelin rep as the tire dealer found a substance inside his tires they questioned. There was discussion of the many tire dealers and the discounts/savings they provide. Bill's, Rydell, Firestone, Great American Tire, America's Tires. Steve C, There is a sign up sheet for Super Car Sunday Toy Drive December 1, 2019. Come out and bring an unwrapped toy to donate. First report of C8 performance Motor Trend reviewed by media only. C8 went against McLaren, Lamorghini, etc. The original horsepower has increased with the testing, official notice from GM still not available. Judy and Dan walked in late bearing a gift for Sherrie for her birthday and thank you for driving across the country to Bowling Green. Judy and Dan presented her with a photo album of the trip and the places they visited. Board working on the Installation Brunch for January 12, 2020. Bob S mentioned John V told him about a car show at Busch on Roscoe from 9-3 with free beer, expect 200 cars and tours of the plant. Steve C said there are posters and books to take that were donated by members. Steve R visited Rydell and created his example C8 order online with them to see what options he would purchase with the car. He said a picture of the car goes up on the website.
